To discuss about the policy to offer B.Tech with Honours or/and Minor Specialization & to decide about the time period for acquiring minor specialization

- The House was apprised that the Institute is ready for implementing the flexible curriculum w.e.f. batch admitted in 2017-18 session.
- The House was apprised that the provisions (for getting honours or minor specialisation) are already approved in the previous meeting of the AC in accordance with the AICTE guidelines-January 2018 for preparing Model Curriculum.
- It has been approved in the previous Academic Council meetings to keep provision for the students to opt for either Under Graduate degree with Honours or additional Minor Engineering/Technology/Management/Applied Sciences specialization, if he/she earns an additional 20 credits from the pool specified by the respective BoS.
- It has also been approved in the previous meeting that to acquire the 20 additional credits students can opt additional courses from V semester onwards. (maximum two additional courses in each semester).
- All the BoS have already discussed and prepared a list of "additional courses" from MOOCs well in advance for the next semester starting July 2019.
- However, the guidelines/ordinance from affiliating university has not yet been received. Therefore, the House was of the opinion that permission from university must be sought by the Institute to implement both provisions, i.e. Honours as well as Minor Specialization.
- The house reviewed the preparedness of the Institute for implementing the Flexible Curriculum and approved the provisions to offer Honours or Minor Specialization in tune with AICTE guidelines for Model Curriculum.

- Based on these points, it was resolved that the institute, being an academically autonomous institute must represent the case at the University level and seek permission for offering Honours/Minor Specialization, for the benefit of the students and to add multidisciplinary flavour to the B.Tech degree which is expected to enhance the employability of students in the present rapidly changing technological scenario.
- It was resolved by the Academic Council of the Institute that, in case, the University (RGPV) does not make any provision for conferring "Minor Specialization" in its ordinance for flexible curriculum, then
  - considering the preparations of institute to move ahead for both the provisions (Honours / Minor Specialization), the Director of the institute will carry the matter to the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of RGPV Bhopal for his kind consideration and further inclusion in the deliberations of higher level committees (Academic Council / Executive Council of University (if needed), so that the said provisioning can possibly be made for MITS Gwalior by considering its autonomy status ("UGC Autonomous") as potential feature to offer this "Minor Specialization" provision (along with Honours) in its flexible curriculum.
- In the further discussion, the House noted the significance of "Minor Specialization" (along with the Honours) and discussed about the expectation of different accreditation agencies like NAAC to have such a provision and flexibility in the curriculum.
- It is further resolved that the Honours will be conferred in the parent discipline and student will be bound to complete the additional courses requirement (20 additional credits i.e. 170+20) within the permitted duration of degree (as per the prevailing ordinance).
- In case a student aspires for Honours & minor specialization both, it is proposed that the provision for extended time for completion of additional courses (extra 20 credits through MOOC based learning i.e. 170+20+20) for acquiring minor specialization (after the completion of his graduation with Honours) may be made.
- In continuation it is decided that for the smooth implementation of these provisions, a student will be required to initially opt (at the time of commencement of V Semester) for Honours or Minor Specialization or Honours with minor specialization.
