About MITS

MITS was established in 1957 by HH Late Sir Jiwaji Rao Scindia, Maharaja of the erstwhile state of Gwalior. The foundation stone of the institute was laid by Late Dr. Rajendra Prasad 1956 and the building was inaugurated by Late Dr. S. Radhakrishnan. The President of India, Dr. Pratibha Devi Singh Patil graced the Golden Jubilee celebration of the Institute in 2008. MITS has its own lush green campus spread over 45 acres in city of rich heritage. The Institute offers education in eleven undergraduate programmes, eighteen PG programmes and has a QIP centre for Ph.D. The prime objective of the Institute is to provide quality education in engineering and technology and to conquer this venture, the Institute has taken several initiatives by developing infrastructure and skills of faculty, staff and students from the fund given by World Bank under TEQIP-III. Today the Institute enjoys a track record of extremely good results. Needless to say, our commitment to further enrich the quality of education will be our constant features and our commitment.
